Meeting was called to order at 7:00 PM by Mayor Breton who advised that the purpose of the meeting was to adopt a budget and elect officers for 4/1/2023 through 3/31/2024 fiscal year. There were 8 people present.

Mayor Breton opened the meeting with a salute to the flag.

Mayor Breton opened the meeting for discussion and questions concerning the budget to all present.

Motion that budget be brought to a vote made by Dave Newton, seconded by Molly Grimes.

Ayes - 8 Nay – 0 Abstain – 0

2023 – 2024 Budget was passed.

Clerk Danielle Riggs was asked to conduct the meeting.

Nominations were then opened for Mayor (1 year term):

*Jason Breton was nominated by Matthew Grimes, seconded by Molly Grimes

*In absence of any other nominations Jason Breton was elected Mayor.

Nominations for Trustee (2-year term) were opened:

*David Newton was nominated by Molly Grimes, seconded by Heidi Dockum

*In absence of any other nominations David Newton was elected Trustee.

Mayor Breton announced the voting was over and made a few remarks about the Village of Alexander and thanked all that came out to the meeting.

Joe Zajaczkowski stated that there seems to be an issue with dog waste in the village. He has noticed an unusual amount of waste that dog owners do not dispose of properly. Clerk Riggs will put a notice in the paper and send out letters to residents to hopefully try to control this issue.

A letter to the sheriffs' office is going to be sent out regarding the speed of traffic within the village.

Motion that meeting be adjourned made by Jason Breton, seconded by Dave Newton.

Carried.

Time: 7:23 PM

Respectfully submitted:

Danielle Riggs

Village Clerk
